

Our Community, Our Water

Whatcom Water Week

September 17-24, 2011

Host an Event

Join the celebration. Showcase how you, your organization, or business values water by hosting a Whatcom Water Week event.

The weeklong event will:

- Celebrate the importance of our water resources
- Share what we know and are learning about the “state of resource”
- Inspire and help others learn about stewardship efforts
- Meet new people and find new partners
- Be fun!

The kick-off for Whatcom Water Week will be on September 17th. Events will be scheduled throughout the week at various locations across the county.

What You Do...

- Host a water-oriented event or showcase the role water plays in your life or business
- Tell us how it went

What We Do...

- Coordinate Whatcom Water Week
- Host the Sept. 17th Kick-Off Event
- Provide advertising & promotion

Water is an integral part of life.

About Whatcom Watershed Information Network

Our Mission

The primary mission of the network is to support and improve watershed education, stewardship, information exchange and public involvement efforts in Whatcom County.

The goal is to inspire participation from all segments of our community, and to show that water is a common thread among us.

About Us

The Whatcom Watershed Information Network (WWIN) is a network of eighty representatives from government agencies, non-profit organizations, educational institutions and citizens who are involved and interested in marine and fresh water ecosystems and natural resources education and outreach.

Frequently Asked Questions

Who Can Host an Activity?

Anyone - community members, neighborhood groups, businesses, governments, agencies, non-profits, schools. Events must fit the intent of WWIN and mission of WWIN.

What Types of Activities Should I Do?

Some ideas include:

- Tours
- Field Trips
- Contests
- Demonstrations
- Kid's Activities
- Displays
- Arts and Crafts
- Music
- Races
- Auctions/Raffles
- Tree Planting
- Beach Clean-Ups

This is your chance to be creative! WWIN will post events on our Web site so you can see what others are doing.

Do I Need to Have the Event at a Particular Location?

As our water runs from Mt. Baker to the Strait of Georgia, so can your activity! We expect people will schedule events throughout Whatcom County.
